

Connector

Read the assigned chapters. As you read, think of something the story reminds you of in your own life. The connection could be a book, a TV show, or something you've done. Write about what the chapter makes you think about and why it made you think of it.