Bed in Summer

by Robert Louis Stevenson

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candle-light.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Part A:

Which sentence best describes how the speaker feels in stanza 3?

- a. frustrated to go to bed while it is still daylight
- b. amazed at the pretty sky
- c. happy to have so much time to play
- d. annoyed to go to sleep early in the winter

Part B:

Select one line from the poem that best supports your answer above.

- a. And does it not seem hard to you
- b. When all the sky is clear and blue
