

Looking for a great holiday gift that also gives back to our global community?

What is a Rafiki bracelet?
 It is a long string of beads made by women in Kenya that are sold by ME to WE to help get these people the supplies and money they need to support themselves and their families!

Look no further! This year, the GAA Student Council is teaming up with ME to WE to sell Rafiki bracelets!

We are offering a curated variety of bracelets, including:

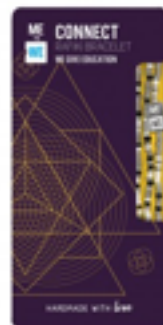

< For a special kid in your life!

For your > BFF with wanderlust!
