Name _____ Categorizing Laws By Purpose

Categorize each law according to its purposes. Check the columns that apply to each law shown. Most laws can accomplish many different goals. So, you can choose ALL the purposes that could be served by the law stated. There could be two or more correct answers for each law.	To protect public safety	To protect people's rights of privacy, property, religion, freedoms, education, etc.	To protect the environment	To provide the services and items that citizens need	To provide the money to pay government workers and pay the bills to operate government buildings, such as heat, electricity, etc.	To encourage social responsibility, which means you think of what is good for others and not only just yourself; to promote civic virtue.	To protect public property
1. Follow the speed limit.
2. License and leash your dog.
3. Do not trespass on private property.
4. Pay your taxes.
5. Pull over for sirens and emergency vehicles.
6. Treat all people with respect, without discrimination based on race, religion, gender or other characteristics.
7. Educate your children by sending them to school or homeschooling them properly.
8. Clean up after your dog in public places.
9. False advertising is not allowed.
10. Get a permit for fishing.							