

Immigration Nation

Name: _____

C. Change the Story. Rewrite the details of each story so that the person is eligible to enter the U.S. You can change any information you wish including countries, cities, jobs, etc.

Peter I am from England, but got a job working at a car factory in Mexico. I plan on living in California and driving to work every day.  _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	Leni I am a biologist in Costa Rica, but my co-workers are really mean. I am going to seek refuge in the U.S. because they will be nicer to me.  _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	Narendra I'm from Bengaluru, India and my wife is from Moscow. We are going to move to Vermont because we like snow.  _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
---	--	---

D. The American Dream. Kristen is from Norway and wants to live in the U.S. She loves New York City, spicy food, and speaks three languages. She's an adult now and is ready to make a move! Tell her story and explain whether or not she gets to live here. Be creative and invent details as necessary.

Beginning: Include details about Kristen before she moves to America.
Middle: Include details about how Kristen plans to immigrate to America.
End: Include details about whether or not Kristen was able to immigrate. Explain why or why not and which harbor she used.