

Maine's Congressional Delegation - 116th Congress - (2019 - 2021)

These people represent Maine in Washington, DC. They are members of the U.S. Congress. They think about how new federal laws would affect Mainers and they stand up for our best interests. Citizens of Maine should contact their senators and representatives with their opinions, questions, ideas, and concerns. These delegates often help "Mainers" who have problems that the government can help solve.
