

Name _____ Match the Laws to the Executive Departments

Directions: Look at the descriptions of each executive department (separate sheet) and decide which department would be responsible for carrying out each of the laws below. Write the name of the correct department on the line. Spelling and capitalization will count for one point each, so copy carefully.

No need to write "Department of..."

- _____ 1. A law about helping retired soldiers to start a new career or open their own business.
- _____ 2. A law saying that citizens can have more time to pay their taxes if they apply for an extension by a certain deadline.
- _____ 3. A law saying that citizens will be able to keep their children on the family health insurance plan until age 26.
- _____ 4. A law providing farmers with training in the use of safer pesticides.
- _____ 5. A law saying that all bridges in the country must be regularly inspected for safety.
- _____ 6. A law saying that Japanese fishing vessels must register (sign in) before selling their catch in the U.S.A.
- _____ 7. A law about how to protect citizens from criminals who are recently released from prison.
- _____ 8. A law saying that national parks must have handicapped access in all buildings.
- _____ 9. A law saying that the U.S. will be part of the United Nations, so that our country can develop good relationships with other countries.
- _____ 10. A law about the rights of employees to know if they are working with dangerous chemicals.
- _____ 11. A law about developing new weapons systems for the military.
- _____ 12. A law allowing wind farms to be constructed in the Atlantic Ocean.
- _____ 13. A law that requires the federal government to give aid (money) to schools needing repairs.
- _____ 14. A law saying that cities must provide shelters for the homeless.
- _____ 15. A law saying that people will be required to have all items being brought onto an airplane scanned so as to protect from acts of terrorism.