

A Very Big Branch - True/False Review

Directions: Write 'True' or 'False' in the space provided for each statement.

1.	The executive branch is only made up of the president.
2.	Each government department has a leader called a secretary.
3.	The 15 departments heads are all part of the president's cabinet.
4.	The president's cabinet is a group of people who guard the president.
5.	Government agencies only make rules; they can't enforce rules.
6.	The president has total control over independent agencies.
7.	Enforcing laws can include educating the public, catching lawbreakers, and taking people to court.
8.	When Congress passes a law, the law includes every detail about how it must be carried out.
9.	Most of the work done in the executive branch is completed by the president.
10.	A big role of the executive branch is to keep the nation safe.	