

Potential Advisor Questionnaire

Name _____

1. What are you currently teaching?
2. What are your hobbies?
3. What are your personal interests?
4. What are your greatest strengths (ie. communication, leadership, design, math, science)?
5. Where or how would you like to grow?
6. How would you describe yourself in adjectives?

7. In three years, you would like to be doing?

8. Your top passions are?

9. What are a couple of the major challenges you are experiencing and trying to overcome in your role at the moment?

10. Describe your "ideal" mentor or mentee.

11. What does becoming an advisor/mentor mean to you?

Below is a list of some of the more common benefits of advising/mentoring. Please rate the values of each in the box indicated.

(Note: Using a scale of 0 = Not at all important to 5 = Very Important)

	Not important						Very Important
	0	1	2	3	4	5
Mentees must learn how to balance school and life
Mentees need to develop interpersonal and communication skills
Mentees need to expand their knowledge base
Mentees need to develop their teamwork skills
Mentees need to improve their satisfaction and morale
Mentees should negotiate a path to independence
Mentees should set goals
Other (Please specify)
Mentors should foster inclusion
Mentors should enhance awareness of diversity issues
Mentors should help to develop the next generation of leaders
Mentors should provide an alternative source of feedback to mentees
Mentors should act as a coach
Mentors should be active listeners
Other (Please specify)							