

Grade 7 History

Conflict and Change in New France (Part A)

Task: Read the Chapter entitled, “Conflict and Change in New France and complete each of the tasks below. Please ensure that you clearly communicate your ideas in complete sentences.

1. Today France and England are allies. But this was not always so. Give reasons for why France and England used to be bitter enemies. (4)
2. France and England were in conflict over three main areas. Create a three - column chart to show these areas. In each column describe what each area was and the reasons for the conflict in each area. (10)
3. Create a timeline to show the major events in the Seven Year’s War between 1755 and 1760. Provide a short description (2-3 sentences) for each event and clearly show whether each battle was a French or British victory. Use a colour code to show which was which. (4)
4. Go back to Chapter 4, pages 96-98 and read about “The Acadian Experience”. (7)
  - a. Did the Acadians deserve the punishment of expulsion? Give reasons for your opinion.
  - b. The Acadians claimed to be neutral. Is it possible to be neutral in the middle of a war? Give reasons for your response.
  - c. Should the Acadians have been allowed to move to another French territory? Give reasons for your response.