

5-18-20

Grade 2-A Fawn in the Forest

1. Where do most white-tailed deer live?
 - A. in the grassland
 - B. in the mountains
 - C. in the river
 - D. in the forest

2. What does the article say helps a fawn hide?
 - A. They can climb in the trees in the forest
 - B. They have white spots that camouflage them.
 - C. They have big eyes to see predators.
 - D. They can dig a small hole in the ground.

3. How does a mother deer take care of her baby?
 - A. She licks it clean.
 - B. She brings it food.
 - C. She moves it to different spots to look for more food.
 - D. all of the above

4. When are many forest animals born?
 - A. spring
 - B. summer
 - C. fall
 - D. winter

5. How long does it take a cardinal's egg to hatch?
 - A. 2 days
 - B. 12 days
 - C. 22 days
 - D. 32 days