

4-20-20

Grade 3-Wild Crossings

1. How do they guide animals to the correct crossing places?
 - A. with crossing signs
 - B. with fences
 - C. with vegetation
 - D. both B and C

2. Why are the crossings in Banff being used as models?
 - A. The crossing system has reduced collisions with wildlife by more than 80%.
 - B. More than a million roadway accidents involving animals happen in the U.S. each year.
 - C. Close to 5,000 deer and elk go through the undercrossings.
 - D. It has stopped species from becoming endangered.

3. What happens to animals when a road is built where they live?
 - A. they can move where they want to go faster on the road
 - B. their migration path is disrupted
 - C. the road hurts their feet
 - D. they can all meet down the road

4. Why is it important to be proactive with construction of crossings?
 - A. cars can get through faster
 - B. people need to use the crossings
 - C. they don't want to wait till a species is endangered
 - D. the construction of crossings gives jobs to the people living there