

AP Psychology
Week of April 6th

Monday, April 6th

The Intelligence Exam will be open from 9:00AM to 11:00AM. You may use your textbook, notes and any online resources you wish to access. Please do NOT work with or consult others. This is a test of your knowledge and understanding of this material. Please upload when finished.

Intelligence notes are due as well. Recall there was a handout with 19 questions that was also assigned before break. You may upload or send to my email.

Tuesday, April 7th

Your task today is to visit the College Board AP site and review the changes to the AP Psychology exam. Navigate to the AP Psychology section and please read and summarize in your own words the important elements of the length, structure and format of the 2020 exam. What will it look like and focus on (units covered)? How it will be administered and taken by you? (1-2 paragraphs). You will upload this as a single file along with your FRQ assignment on Thursday.

Wednesday, April 8th

We're gonna Zoom. For a bit of nostalgia see this <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F7gzHLKT5g4>. I actually watched this as kid...

This meeting will focus on where we are going and answer any questions you might have. I've included below invitation details to two Zooms(?). The first is for Period 2, the second for Period 3. You may attend either session. I'm trying to keep attendance numbers manageable. I hope to see you then!

Thursday, April 9th

Today you will begin your active review by accessing AP Online Classes and Review Sessions. In the coming weeks you will be watching these and completing assignments related them.

Log in to your College Board/AP Classroom account. Click on Updates for AP Students affected by Coronavirus (Covid19). Scroll down to and click on Online AP Courses/Watch on Youtube or you may go directly to <https://www.youtube.com/user/advancedplacement>

The first video is Introduction to Disorders 8.1. While this year's AP exam does not cover this material this lesson discusses how to approach AP Psychology Free Response Questions (FRQ). Be sure to watch from 0:00-14:15 and from 31:25-END. Attempt the FRQ assigned at the end and submit this along with the What's the AP Psych Exam Going to Look Like This Year summary (Tuesday's assignment).
