News: It was so great seeing all of you during conferences. I am so proud of the students and their ability to express their achievements and goals for the future. I'm excited to continue to see their growth the rest of this semester. This week is the Harvest Party. If you have signed up to donate an item, please send that to school with your child by Thurs. It will be a fun event. The students have also earned a compliment party. They brainstormed ideas and took a vote. They decided on a PJ/potluck party. I will schedule that soon and send out the information. Have a wonderful week!
