News: This is an exciting week with some fun and informative guest presentations. To prepare for snow school we will have lessons from the Boise Watershed and Boise Environmental Education. This Friday will be having school store at lunch. We will also be having a school spirit day. Antonym day is a day where you dress opposite another or opposite yourself. February is BEngal KIND month! Information will come home in Monday folders regarding all the activities planned. ❤️ Snow school is so close! Chaperones please look for details coming home in the Monday folder. Have a wonderful week!
