News: Thank you so much to all of the chaperones who were able to join us for snow school! We could not have done it without you! Although it was sooooo cold, the students enjoyed their time while learning about snow science! This week students are able to purchase candy grams for friends and staff during their lunch hour. Friday is our school store and Valentine's Day party. Welcome to our new student Shaun! Please note this adds one more student for valentines if your child is bringing valentines for the class. We are also attending the silent film festival at the Egyptian on Friday. We will have an early lunch. Have a wonderful week.
